Call to worship and thought for the week

God, my shepherd! I don't need a thing. You have bedded me down in lush meadows, you find me quiet pools to drink from. True to your word, you let me catch my breath and send me in the right direction.

(Psalm 23: 1-3 from the Message)

For our prayers:

We have much to celebrate this week, including:

- The warmth of the sun bringing new growth and revealing the beauty of our lovely countryside

We are grateful for:

- Our musicians who enable us to sing God's praises as we worship

Your kingdom come, here and now:

- As we share hospitality with visitors and those on holiday
- Through those involved in local government at all levels

Regularly in our prayers:

- Revd Andrew Rawding, his wife Loveday and their family, preparing to join us
- Our ministry team as they plan and prepare our worship
- Lay Pastoral Assistants: Pauline, Cathryn, Jenny and Liz
- Bishops: Stephen, Karen, and Andrew; Archdeacon: Penny
- Bishop Rufus and the diocese of Lainya in Sudan during this time of unrest

Specially in our prayers this week:

- Those suffering because of war or natural disasters and those trying to make peace
- Those suffering from mental health issues and their carers
- Long Bredy and all who live and work there

... remembering the families of those who have recently died

COLLECTS FOR THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

- for use in the services or for private prayer

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life:
raise us, who trust in him,
from the death of sin to the life of righteousness,
that we may seek those things which are above,
where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep:
teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command,
that all your people may be gathered into one flock,
to the glory of God the Father. Amen

(Post communion prayer)

Merciful Father,
you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again:
keep us always under his protection,
and give us grace to follow in his steps;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

OUR NEW RECTOR

Revd Andrew Rawding will be taking part in the London Marathon today, Sunday 21st April. He took part (aged 30) in 2000 and finished in 2 hrs 58 mins. He's hoping to beat that time this year! As a result of his service as Padre to 40 Commando Royal Marines in Afganistan in 2010 and the fact that several of the Marines later lost their lives to suicide he is running on behalf of the Samaritans. He would welcome any support by way of sponsorship. The link to the online sponsorship facility is:

The proposed date for his induction is 14th July at Burton Bradstock – details to be confirmed.

GRANTS AVAILABLE TOWARDS THE 2023 NET ZERO TARGET

A £1.5 million grant that will help churches pay for items such as solar panels and heat pumps has been announced by the Benefact Trust.

The grant-giving charity will provide additional support over two years to up to 60 'demonstrator churches' who in turn will lead the way in inspiring and encouraging other churches to achieve net zero carbon emissions.

Helen Gray, Benefact Trust Director, said: "Last year, we developed our grants programmes so that we could help organisations to make a greater impact in society. In 2024, we've focused our funding even further, with strategic grants that tackle key issues. This grant towards the Church of England is our first strategic grant that focuses on climate. It's a privilege to partner with the Church of England, who have bold and impactful plans, as we make significant steps in our commitment to tackling climate change."

The grant from the Trust is in addition to £3.8 million allocated by the Church of England for funding and technical support to help demonstrator churches make as much progress as possible towards achieving net zero carbon by the end of 2030, in line with the Church's Routemap to Net Zero.
